

ARTISTIC PROTEST:

REPRESENTATIONS OF RACE, VIOLENCE, INJUSTICE, AND INEQUALITY

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29TH 6PM-8PM
CONE CENTER MCKNIGHT AUDITORIUM

WELCOME MESSAGE BY DR. DANIELLE N. BOAZ

The Africana Studies Department at UNC Charlotte welcomes you to our “Artistic Protest.” As a department and a field of study born of the Civil Rights Movement, we are deeply committed to the ongoing struggle for peace, justice, and equality. We are proud to host this event to give local artists the platform to use their considerable talents to raise awareness about historical and present day injustices in our community and across the globe. If you would like to contact any of the artists featured at this event, their bios and email addresses are available on our website: africana.uncc.edu/

VISUAL ARTWORK

Charlotte Taste by Elizabeth Alston-Pinckney

Henry Behind Bars by Cynthia Cole

Real Talk: The Color Black Magazine by DeAndre Collins

Entropy by de'Angelo Dia

Black Lives Matter Box by Mark Doepker

Anti-Miscegenation by Abigale Godwin

I will blow you with my colors by Francisco Gonzalez

Problematic Disguise by Chanelle Haughton

Suspect by John Hairston Jr.

Customer49 Flyers by Alexander Jutila

Assination by Marcus Kiser

When the Target is On YOU by LaDara McKinnon

Fruit Basket by Natasha Minott

V by Jessica Moss

Violence, the golden Afro girl; The Revolution Will Not Be Televised & Black Rose by Ashley Myers

Unpleasant Dinner; Blank Stare & Rebuild Series by Sapun Ngoensritong

Freedom Hands & Black Lives Matter by Jordan M. Pinckney

Protect Ya Neck by Bianca Reyes

Black Lives Matter by Jamil D. Steele

Summer Headstones by Hamilton Ward

Breakthrough: Civil Rights Activist Kris Long and Art Journalist Hannah Rochester Barnhardt by Madison Westfall

PERFORMING ARTWORK

A Silent Film by Jamila Brown

Marvin Gaye's Inner City Blues performed by Monroe Brown

Am I Really A Problem by Shomari Head (Spoken Word)

I Shot Him by Yazid Laury (Spoken Word)

This Little Light of Mine performed by Carl DuPont (vocals) and Dr. Gregory Thompson (piano)

Together by Matthew Mills (Spoken Word)

Wake Up Video by Courtney Cole, Letaeja Fitzgerald, Tyquan Pugh & Ashley Luyindu

SPECIAL THANKS

Africana Studies Office Manager: Oweeta Shands

Event Services Coordinator: Aman Agah

Volunteers: Collegiate 100, Student Alumni Ambassadors

UNC Charlotte Director of Galleries: Crista Cammaroto

